

Job description

Position: General Laborer

Company Profile

We are a growing manufacturer of premium impact and abrasion resistant products for bulk material handling systems in mining, steel processing, aggregates and power generation and looking to expand our production team.

Who are we looking for?

You have always been reliable and hardworking

Entry level roles begin at assembly and inspection where your commitment to doing the job well the first time will be noted and appreciated. You can work well on your own, be part of a team and commit to a safety first approach.

You are motivated and have the ability to and desire to continuously learn improve and grow, your pride in doing a good job shines through.

if this sounds like you we are interested in hearing from you.

Remuneration:

This position is being offered as a full time contract opportunity

$15.00/ hour with opportunity to grow

Strong benefit plan including dental

2 weeks' vacation

Experience requirements

Previous experience working with tools ; metalwork is an asset

Scope of Responsibility

Reporting to the Production Manager, the scope of responsibility for the General Laborer includes all of the following and others as assigned:

- The General Laborer operates safety equipment and uses safe work habits while performing his job function.
- The General laborer assembles parts and places them in bins for further processing.
- The General laborer removes parts from a bin removes wire or banding and inspects the parts for defects the finished product will be staged for further processing, be placed on the shelf for inventory or packed on a skid for shipping
- once we have gotten you certified on the lift truck you will use the lift truck to move the product from location to location.

- tools you will be using include measuring tape, tin snips, hand grinders, banding tools, hammers, pliers, scissors, stamping tools, paper cutter

Minimum Required Qualifications:

- Be in good physical condition- able to stand for 90% of the shift
- Be capable of pushing up to 100 pounds there is heavy lifting required however lifting devices are provided
- due to the nature of grinding the environment can be noisy, hearing protection is required and provided
- excellent eyesight manual dexterity and physical condition required
- willing to work any shift as required
- willing to drive a forklift and use lifting devices (training & certification provided)
- Experienced with the use of hand tools and grinders normally found in a metal fabrication shop,
- Strong commitment to safety in the workplace.
- Read and write Basic English.
- Flexible work schedules and working overtime based on production demand.
- have basic math skills- counting, simple addition and subtraction
- capable of measuring with a measuring tape to 1/16"
- work week is Monday to Friday
- reliable , punctual and hard working

Please send your resume to info@canadianweartech.com